GOOD NEWS—BIBLE STUDY is back! We will meet 3 times a month, every Sunday except the first Sunday for a Bible Study about “The Book of Job”, led by Pastor Robert Munoz. What is the book of Job about? Job is a wealthy man living in a land called Uz with his large family and extensive flocks. He is “blameless” and “upright,” always careful to avoid doing evil (1:1). ... God boasts to Satan about Job's goodness, but Satan argues that Job is only good because God has blessed him abundantly.

Yahweh permits Satan to take from Job all of the material benefits Job has received and to afflict him with the most severe and excruciating pain. Through all of this suffering, Job never complains. His only response is "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; may the name of the Lord be praised." However, Job's wife urges him to "curse God and die" in order to gain relief from his suffering. Three friends — Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite — come from afar and express their sympathy by remaining silent and by clothing themselves in sackcloth and sitting in ashes. So basically it is about human suffering. Perhaps this is you or someone you know or love. Come explore this book with us. Pastor Munoz has written a play about the book of Job so he is somewhat of an expert. Bible study is a good thing for everyone and we hope you will join us.
